HMY is seen as a complementing acquisition where we strengthen our position in Southern Europe

Net sales by geographical area (incl. currency impact), MSEK

- Shift in market exposure from Northern Europe to Southern Europe
- Complementing acquisition strengthening our presence in Spain, France and Turkey
- UK & Ireland, but also Southern Europe if excl. currency impact, are driving growth

RTM operating cash flow at 456 MSEK impacted negatively by NWC growth

ITAB

Operating cash flow (not pro forma), MSEK

- Cash flow in Q2 at MSEK -53 (77) and for Rolling 12 months at MSEK 456 (746). Q2 affected by higher NWC, and also excluding the month of January for HMY (consolidated as of 1st February 2025)
- NWC impacted by normal seasonality, sales growth impacting AR, and integration work
- As part of our integration work with HMY we are looking at improving our capital efficiency further
- Rolling 12 months cash conversion at declining to 59% (target = 80%), mainly driven by NWC development

We have a clear plan over the next few years towards synergy realization and EPS growth

Strategic rationale in brief

- Geographically complementary to ITAB, given HMY's strength in Spain, France, Middle East and South America
- HMY and ITAB together offers strengthened relevance to the combined customer base and will enable commercial synergies
- Significant increase in scale will lead to improved efficiency and synergies in both cost and capital

Financial attractiveness

- Potential synergies of MEUR 30 p.a. will enhance EBITDA margins in the combined entity and improve earnings per share (full effect during 2027)
- Share dilution of 16% while estimated EBIT growth of 149%, resulting in estimated EPS growth of 58%
- Non-recurring integration costs of approximately MEUR 21 estimated over 3 years to realize the synergies identified
